

This object input and output range is 0-1

It perform a non-linearity in order to allow the continuity of the diferenciate of the signal (assuming the input signal is a ramp from 0 to 1). The shape of this non-linearity is a 3d order polygone

This object is usefull when natural fade in or fade out is needed. (same result can be acheived with the line3 external) utilisation example :

